Corpus Christi

Body and Blood of Christ

Ours is essentially a Eucharistic community, a thanksgiving community, and our Catholic identity is most clearly expressed when the parish gathers for the celebration of the Eucharist. It is then that we show to one another, to other Christians, and to the world that we are united in faith and worship and life.

Without the Eucharist and other sacraments we would lose our identity. For Catholics, eucharistic sharing is inseparably linked to, and is the visible expression of full Church membership.

We especially acknowledge this in our feast today of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. We become what we receive, the body of Christ, when we celebrate as Jesus asked us to do.

This sense of belonging to God's people, and its full expression in the sharing in the bread and wine at communion time, is especially powerful for us this weekend as we celebrate the First Communion of Ryan and Neave. For over a month they have been preparing for this day with their parents Pat and Elizabeth, and their teacher, Helen McPake.

They have seen how gathering together, storytelling, meals, rituals and symbols are part of every human celebration and are at the heart of Eucharist.

We give thanks for the gift of these children in our community and congratulate them and their family. We pledge our support as fellow pilgrims on the journey. May they be nourished and empowered to become Christ for the world.

Fr Chris

Entrance Antiphon

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

Entrance Hymn

No 199 (Gather) Bread of Life, Hope for the World

Opening Prayer

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption.

First Reading: Genesis 14: 18-20

When Abraham heard that his nephew, Lot, had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, and routed the abductors. After Abraham's return King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God the Most High. He blessed Abraham and said. "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; he blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!" And Abram gave him one tenth of everything.

Response 8:30am

You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek

Response to the Psalm: 6:00pm & 10:30pm

You are a Priest Forever in the Line of Melchizedek

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11: 23-26

Beloved I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 9: 11-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured. The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said. "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place." But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Make the people sit down in groups of about fifty each." They did so and made them all sit down. And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.
