READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy 4:32-34. 39-40

The Lord himself is God in heaven above and on earth below: there is no other.

Moses said to the people: Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt?

Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you forever!

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 32:4-6. 9. 18-20. 22. R v.12

Response: Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love Response

By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke; and they came to be. He commanded; they sprang into being. Response

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Response

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:14-17

You have received the Spirit that makes you God's own children, and in that Spirit, we call God: Father, our Father!

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father! The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 28:16-20

Baptise them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. GO, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.

The Gospel of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity we also observe, in the Church, the first World Day of Children, a time to prayerfully place their lives under the watch and care of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

1. That Pope Francis, who gathers the children of the world together in prayer, they he and the children will always receive our heartfelt respect.
Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

2. That this National Sorry Day, lamenting the stolen generations of our indigenous children, will bring to our nation healing from the Holy Trinity, reconciliation in all of our relationships and hope for the future.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

3. That the cries of millions of children of the world who are traumatised through war, oppression, and hunger in the Holy Land, Ukraine, and Sudan, and where there are droughts, floods, and other natural disasters, will be heard and responded to quickly.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in the faces of children all over the world. Come, Jesus, you who make all things new, who are the way that leads us to the Father, come and remain with us always. Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
