READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help.

Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the prophet Ezekiel 17:22-24

I have made the small tree great.

Thus says the Lord God: "I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

"On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind."

All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the Lord have spoken; I will accomplish it."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 91:2-3, 13-16

Response: Lord it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. Response

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. Response

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians 5:6-10

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

Brothers and sisters, we are always confident, even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
The seed is the word of God,
Christ is the sower; all who come
to him will live for ever.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 4:26-34

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

Such a large crowd gathered around Jesus that he got into a boat and began to teach them using many parables.

Jesus said: "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, without the sower knowing how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with the sickle, because the harvest has come."

Jesus also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade." With many such parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

The Gospel of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, Jesus assures us that the Kingdom of God constantly grows in our midst unseen and mysterious, but is capable of producing in us a harvest of good works and of warm hospitality.

1. For Pope Francis as he calls on the Church this month to pray for those fleeing their own countries, during this Refugee Week, we will join with him and offer them our help wherever and however we can.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

2. For unity among all people of goodwill, that prayers for the end of the wars in the Holy Land and Ukraine will be insistent and fervent, and that peace will be true and lasting.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

3. For the children of Africa on this Day of the African Child, that those damaged by war, hungry for food and clean water, and all left orphaned through many tragedies will receive all the help they need.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: Heavenly Father, gather to yourself the prayers of your people, as we continue to give you thanks for all your blessings. Through Christ, our Lord.

Celebrate your sacraments in our beautiful historic church.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
