READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

All peoples clap your hands.
Cry to God with shouts of Joy.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Through the devils envy death entered the world.

God did not make death,
and he does not delight in the death of the living.
For he created all things so that they might exist; the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them, the dominion of Hades is not on earth.

For righteousness is immortal.
For God created us for incorruption,
and made us in the image of his own eternity,
but through the devil's envy death entered the world,
and those who belong to his company experience it.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 29:2, 4-6, 11-13

Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. Response

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

Response

The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-152

Your present abundance should cover their needs.

Now as you excel in everything- in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you- so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.

As it is written,

"The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Our saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 5.21-43

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark.

Little girl, get up!

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side,
a great crowd gathered around him;
and he was by the sea.
Then one of the synagogue leaders named Jairus came
and, when he saw Jesus,
fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly,
"My little daughter is at the point of death.
Come and lay your hands on her,
so that she may be made well, and live."
So Jesus went with him.
And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him.
While Jesus was still speaking,
some people came from the leader's house to say,
"Your daughter is dead.
Why trouble the teacher any further?"
But overhearing what they said,
Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue,
"Do not fear, only believe."
Jesus allowed no one to follow him.
When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.
When he had entered, he said to them,
"Why do you make a commotion and weep?
The child is not dead but sleeping."
And they laughed at him.
Then Jesus put them all outside,
and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him,
and went in where the child was.
He took her by the hand and said to her,
"Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!"
And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about for she was twelve years of age.

At this they were overcome with amazement.
Jesus strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, Jesus assures us that the Kingdom of God constantly grows in our midst unseen and mysterious, but is capable of producing in us a harvest of good works and of warm hospitality.

1. That we, who have received the graces of faith, understanding, and keenness for good causes, may, in union with Pope Francis, share with others, the grace of Christ's mercy.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

2. That parents, concerned for the health of a child, will receive for their child the medical care needed, and for the family, emotional, spiritual and material support.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

3. That as Jesus spoke to the little girl with tenderness and healing, we will treat all children with respect, kindness and encouragement.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

4. That women who live with chronic illness, will not be forgotten, but be helped by governments, religious and community organisations so as to relieve their pain and distress.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: Heavenly Father, gather to yourself the prayers of your people, as we continue to give you thanks for all your blessings. Through Christ, our Lord.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
