READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The Lord is the strength of his people, a saving refuge for the one he has anointed.

Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage,
and govern them forever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Job 38.1-4, 8-11

Here have I prescribed the bounds of the sea.

The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:
"Who is this that darkens counsel by words
without knowledge?

I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

"Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell me if you have understanding.

"Who shut in the sea with doors
when it burst out from the womb?—
when I made the clouds its garment,
and prescribed bounds for it,

and set bars and doors,
and said, 'Thus far shall you come, and no
farther,

and here shall your proud waves be stopped'?"

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 107:23-24, 25-31

Response: Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Some went down to the sea in ships
doing business on the mighty waters.

They saw the deeds of the Lord,
his wondrous works in the deep. Response

For he commanded and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea.

They mounted up to heaven and they went down to the depths:

tossing the waves of the sea

up to heaven and back into the deep;

their courage melted away in their calamity.

Response

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he brought them out from their distress.

He made the storm be still,

and the waves of the sea were hushed.

Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Corinthians 2 Corinthians 5.14-17

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

The love of Christ urges us on,
because we are convinced that one has died
for all;

therefore all have died.

And he died for all,

so that those who live might live no longer for themselves,

but for him who died and was raised for them.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one
from a human point of view.

Even though we once knew Christ
from a human point of view,

we know him no longer in that way.

So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation:

everything old has passed away;

see, everything has become new!

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
A great prophet has appeared
among us;
God has visited his people.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 4.35-41

Who then is this that even the wind and the sea obey him?

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark.

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples,

"Let us go across to the other side."

And leaving the crowd behind, they took Jesus with them in the boat, just as he was.

Other boats were with him.

A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped.

But Jesus was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"

He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!"

Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm.

Jesus said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?"

And they were filled with great awe and said to one another,

"Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

The Gospel of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, the image of Jesus calming the storm gives us hope in the midst of so many storms of war and destruction in the world today.

1. We pray that the calming voice of Pope Francis, who pleads for peace, care of the earth and fraternity among people, will transform humanity.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

2. We pray for everyone whose life has become like a violent storm, that people of goodwill will be present to them with compassion and support..

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

3. We pray for the release of the 120 Israeli hostages held in Gaza and the almost 10,000 Palestinians illegally imprisoned in the Occupied West Bank, that freedom will soon be theirs.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: Heavenly Father, gather to yourself the prayers of your people, as we continue to give you thanks for all your blessings. Through Christ, our Lord.

Celebrate your sacraments in our beautiful historic church.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
