READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread? When those who do evil draw near, they stumble and fall.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Genesis 3:8-15

I will put enmity you, between your offspring and her offspring.

After the woman and the man had eaten from the tree, they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself."

God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?"

The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate."

The Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 129

Response: With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice! O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. Response

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you. Response

My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word. My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. Response

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 4:13 - 5,1

We speak since we are grounded in faith.

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture- "I believe, and so I spoke"- we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal. For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

John 12:31, 32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 3:20-35

The end of Satan has come.

Jesus went home and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind."

And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons."

And Jesus called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

"Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"- for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you."

And Jesus replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

The Gospel of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: The word of God today has presented us with difficult themes: of Satan, sin and human decay – but also of the Spirit, grace and eternal life.

1. That the Church will join with Pope Francis in his intention for June, to pray for those who are fleeing from their own countries because of war, persecution, poverty, and hunger.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

2. That we will be understanding of refugees in our midst, offer them a warm welcome, assist them in their needs, and be respectful of them.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

3. That those who struggle with sin and addictions will not despair, but trusting in the grace of Jesus, they will seek forgiveness and recovery with hope and trust.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: Heavenly Father, through the death of resurrection of your Son, Jesus, you rescue us from the death of sin, and make us alive in grace; keep us confident and joyful in our faith. Through Christ our Lord.

Celebrate your sacraments in our beautiful historic church.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
