READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah 23:1-6

The remnant of the flock I will gather to me, and bring them back to their pastures.

Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered - it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them. Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds - it is the Lord who speaks!

But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost - it is the Lord who speaks! 'See the days are coming - it is the Lord who speaks - when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. and this is the name he will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 22

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

Response

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. Response

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. Response

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians 1:3-14

Christ, our peace, has made us one.

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God. In his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 6:7-13

They were as sheep without a shepherd.

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

Thanks be to God

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, Jesus invited the apostles to rest with him, and in this Eucharist we have the opportunity to rest with him in prayer and contemplation.

1. That the members of our families and (parish) (community) who are carrying the burden of sickness and frail age, will be comforted by the Lord, and be close to us through the prayer of this Eucharist.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

2. That those who are in ministry in the Church, and all the faithful who are exhausted in their work, for the sake of their health, they will find the opportunity to rest and be rejuvenated.

Christ, hear us

Christ, graciously hear us.

3. That all who are exhausted by the wars in the Holy Land and Ukraine and in other places of conflict, will experience the fruit of negotiations for peace, and be relieved of their distress and fears.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: God you are our shepherd, give to us green pastures where we can find rest; guide us along the right path and let your goodness and kindness follow us all the days of our life. Through Christ our Lord.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardinginquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
