READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8 (NRSV)

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

You may add nothing to the word which I speak to you - keep the commands of the Lord.

Moses spoke to the people; he said: "So now, Israel, give heed to the statutes and ordinances that I am teaching you to observe, so that you may live to enter and occupy the land that the Lord, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. You must neither add anything to what I command you nor take away anything from it, but keep the commandments of the Lord your God with which I am charging you.

"You must observe them diligently, for this will show your wisdom and discernment to the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and discerning people!' For what other great nation has a god so near to it as the Lord our God is whenever we call to him? And what other great nation has statutes and ordinances as just as this entire law that I am setting before you today?"

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 15.1b-3a, 3b-4a, 4b-5

R. The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

1. O Lord, who may dwell on your holy hill? Those who walk blamelessly, and do what is right, and speak the truth from their heart; who do not slander with their tongue. R.

2. Those who do no evil to their friends, nor take up a reproach against their neighbours; in whose eyes the wicked are despised. but who honour those who fear the Lord. R.

3. Those who stand by their oath even to their hurt: who do not lend money at interest, and do not take a bribe against the innocent. Those who do these things shall never be moved. R.

SECOND READING

James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27 (NRSV)

A reading from the letter of James

Be doers of the word.

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. In fulfilment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

Welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father; is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Father gave us birth by his message of truth, that we might be as the first fruit of his creation.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23 (NRSV)

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark

When the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them. For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders; and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles. So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?"

Jesus said to them, "Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honours me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.' You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition." Then Jesus called the crowd again and said to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand: there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile.

"For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder; adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander; pride, folly. "All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, as we mark this Father's Day, we do so on this World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation.

1. For fathers around the world and in our own families, that they may be men of faith, protective of their families and role models of integrity for their children.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

2. For the departed fathers of all present, for fathers who have died in present wars and natural disasters, for fathers who died alone and afraid, that they will all be gathered into the heavenly Father's home.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

3. For our world which is the common home for all peoples, that together we will live its theme for this year, Hope and Act with Creation, so that we preserve it for future generations.

.Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: God, whose Fatherhood bestows dignity on all earthy fathers, and through the teaching of your Son, Jesus, have taught us that we are all your children, receive our joyful worship and grateful praise this day. Through Christ our Lord.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
