READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

FIRST READING

Numbers 11:25-29 (NRSV)

A reading from the book of Numbers

Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord's people were prophetes!

The Lord said to Moses, "Gather for me seventy of the elders of the people, and they shall bear the burden of the people along with you so that you do not bear it all by yourself."

Then the Lord came down in the cloud, took some of the spirit that was on Moses and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again.

Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. A young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, stop them!" But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!"

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 19.7, 9, 11-12, 13

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple. R.

2. The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. R.

3. By them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward. But who can detect unmindful errors? Clear me from hidden faults. R.

4. Keep back your servant also from the insolent; do not let them have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. R.

SECOND READING

James 5:1-6 (NRSV)

A reading from the letter of James

Your riches have rotted.

Come now, you rich people, weep and wail for the miseries that are coming to you. Your riches have rotted, and your clothes are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you, and it will eat your flesh like fire.

You have laid up treasure for the last days. Listen!

The wages of the labourers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. You have condemned and murdered the righteous one, who does not resist you. The word of the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your word, O Lord, is truth:
make us holy in the truth.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48 (NRSV)

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark

After Jesus had finished teaching the disciples, John said to him, "Teacher; we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us.

"For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

"If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea.

"If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell.

And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers, today the Church marks her 110th World Refugee and Migration Sunday, a day to accompany all who have left their homeland through fear or with hope for a new beginning, under the theme, God walks with his people.

1. May this World Refugee and Migration Sunday convert the hearts of people and governments to welcome people who are in great need and so give them hope for their futures. Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.
2. May those who have been forced to become refugees due to the wars in Palestine, Israel and Lebanon, in Ukraine and Russia and in many other places, know that God walks with them, as we pray with and for them. Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.
3. May the Holy Spirit guide our Archbishop and all who will participate in the second session of the Synod starting at the Vatican next Tuesday, so that Bishops, Priests, Religious and Lay Faithful will accompany each other in a prayerful spirit. Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: We pray in the words of Pope Francis written for this day:

God, Almighty Father, we are your pilgrim Church journeying towards the Kingdom of heaven. Do not let us become possessive of the portion of the world you have given us as a temporary home. Help us to keep walking, together with our refugee and migrant brothers and sisters, toward the eternal dwelling you have prepared for us. Open our eyes and our hearts so that every encounter with those in need becomes an encounter with Jesus, your Son and our Lord, Who lives and reigns forever and ever.

Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
