ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

FIRST READING

Daniel 12:1-3 (NRSV)

A reading from the book of Daniel

All that time your people shall be delivered

In the third year of King Cyrus, a word was revealed to Daniel. The word was true and it concerned a great conflict "At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

"Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please note the Parish Office
will be closed December 23rd
to January 7th.

Ps 145:7-10

R. Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot. I keep the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. R.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also rests secure. For you do not give me up to Sheol, or let your faithful one see the Pit. R.

You show me the path of life. In your presence there is fullness of joy; in your right hand are pleasures forevermore. R.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 10:11-14, 18 (NRSV)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

By a single offering, he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins.

But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Where there is forgiveness of sin and lawless deeds, there is no longer any offering for sin.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful, pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 12:38-44 (NRSV)

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark

Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, opposite the temple and began to talk to his disciples about the end which is to come.

"In those days, after the time of suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken."

"Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven."

"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates."

"Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

"But about that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: My sisters and brothers, today the Universal Church observes the Eighth World Day of the Poor with the theme: The Prayer of the Poor Rises up to God.

1. That the whole Church will join with Pope Francis and pray with the poor today, be their advocates when they are silenced, and always regard them as our brothers and sisters. Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

2. That those who have been reduced to poverty because of the wars across Palestine, Israel, and Lebanon, between Ukraine and Russia and in Myanmar and Sudan will be lifted up into places of peace.

Lord, hear us Lord, hear our prayer.

3. That the poor who have died alone or unloved, as well as those on our November List, will feast at the heavenly banquet.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Loving Father, the prayer of the poor rises up to you. Give us the grace to also hear their voices, to learn their wisdom, to be inspired by their courage and to take their humility into our hearts. Through Christ our Lord.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you—or anyone you know—have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.
